SPECIAL RATES FOR COMPANIES.

CHAS. W. DAVIS,
Proprietor.

Read and Reflect.

DOORS open for matinees at 2 p. m.; curtain rises at 2.30 p. m.

Evenings.—Doors open at 7.30, and curtain rises at 8.15 p. m. sharp.

Tickets can be reserved two days in advance without extra charge.

Office open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Seats can be secured by mail, telegraph or telephone. Telephone 732.

Seats ordered by Telephone or in Person, and not called for by 7.30 o'clock on the night of performance, will then be sold to avoid loss to the Theatre.

Physicians are requested to register at the Box Office, leaving seat number, as this will enable Ushers to find them, if called for, without disturbing the audience.

Children in arms not admitted to evening performances. Children three years old or over, full price.

Patrons will confer a favor by reporting to the management any incivility or inattention on the part of the employees, and annoyances of any nature.

If the individual members of an audience would stop to think for just an instant, they would undoubtedly appreciate the fact that the habit of rising from their seat and leaving the theatre before the curtain falls, is a most annoying one, and one that should be stopped. We therefore beg our audiences to kindly remain in their seats until the close of the performance.

Carriages can be ordered at the Box Office or of the Chief Usher.

For all lost articles, apply at Box Office.

It is strange, but there is a class of people that seem to take an intense delight in bespattering the floor with tobacco juice, and in being boisterous and using profane language. These people should know at once that the courts authorize their immediate expulsion, should the management see fit to exercise its rights.

WHERE PEOPLE CONGREGATE, THERE ADVERTISE.

↔ THE ↔ PROGRAMME

The primary idea of this Programme is, of course, to enlighten the audience as to the personnel of the artists taking part in the performances, incidentally to serve as a guide to the plot of the piece, and generally to give such information as will tend to the enjoyment of the auditor.

Reading matter of a miscellaneous nature, is, however, liberally supplied, that may be perused with interest and advantage. Quips and Quarks give zest to the solid matter, as sauces do to meats, but there is a fund of information in the advertisements that may be seriously considered with profit.

The publishers are prepared to attend to all business in the way of general and special advertising.

Respectfully,

A PET NAME.

Miss Birdie Slade (an Oklahoma belle)—I kinder hate to call you Mr. Bowersock—it sounds so formal.

Swain—Then call me Polecat Pete just as all the fellers do.

KNEW HER BUSINESS.

Miss Quiverful (breaking into a proposal)—Why do you speak so low?

Mr. Shyman (in confusion)—I was afraid of waking your mother up.

Miss Quiverful (reassuringly)—You need not be alarmed. She won't wake up until you are through.

ORNITHOLOGICAL

Hungry Hank (entering taxidermist's)—Do you keep all kinds of stuffed birds here?

Taxidermist—Well, yes; but what of it?

Hungry Hank—I wish you'd gimme a turkey stuffed with oysters. I'm famished.

NOT ROOM ENOUGH.

Haverly—Trilby could never have been a Chicago girl.

Austen—Why not?

Haverly—Because she could never have posed for her foot altogether in one studio.

A New Wrinkle in Photography.

Sol Superseded.—Time Annihilated.

By an entirely novel method of artificial illumination,

MR. JOHN. NICHOLSON
the Photographer, of

521 RICHMOND ST., CITY,
in prepared to make views at your own home of Wedding Parties, Receptions, Theatrical Groups, Society Entertainments, and Individual Portraits just as well as if done in a well-appointed Studio, with the additional advantage of home surroundings.

The apparatus used is cleanly in the extreme, causes neither strangling smoke, obnoxious fumes, nor disagreeable dust, which facts Mr. Nicholson will be pleased to demonstrate to all who honor him with a call at the above address.

Little Ethel—Johnny took my banana.
Mother—Johnny, what do you mean—
Little Johnny—It was all in the game, mama. I said, "Let's play Broadway," and she said, "All right," and so she got a table for a banana stand, and then I was a policeman.

A MODERN MIRACLE.

(From Life.)

"Speaking of miraculous escapes," said Smith, "young Brown was shot full in the chest the other day, and yet was unharmed." "Mother's Bible in his pocket?" said Robinson.

"Pack of cards, more likely," remarked Jones.

"You are not up-to-date," said Smith. "The bullet struck him in the chrysanthemum!"

THEIR GREAT AMBITION.

Citticus—How do you account for this craze among women for riding bicycles? Witticus—It gives them another chance for wearing the pants.

ON THE SAFE SIDE.

Romley—I thought you were going on a business trip this week, Jephson?

Jephson—I was, but the new curate is taking special interest in my wife's salvation, so I'm not going.

A CHANGE OF HUE.

(From Judge.)

Oh, don't you remember sweet Alice, Ben Bolt? Sweet Alice, with hair so brown? She has used a new bleach and now she wears The yellowest hair in town.

TOMMY'S BREAK.

(From Puck.)

I go ed from Sunday-school before last. I don't care! Never had it, anyhow—We don't any fun down there.

Teacher asked who Samson was—
S'pose I made a bad mistake—
But I told her what I thought:
Samson was a bloomin' fake.

Judge—Name? Prisoner—Smith. Judge—Occupation? Prisoner—Locksmith. Judge—Officer, locksmith up.

SHE OUGHT TO.

Tagleigh—That girl dresses out of sight, doesn't she?

Wagleigh—Of course she does. Where would you have her dress?

Flossie—Mamma, tan I have a new dollie?
Mamma—No! Your doll is just as good as new.

Flossie—Well I'se dest as dood as new, but Dod dave 'oo another little dirl.

First horse—"Well, they took poor old Dobbin to the slaughter-house to-day." Second horse—"That's too bad." First horse—"It is bad, but worse remains. They mean to make his hide into bicycle-saddles."

We never knew a man who could not bear another's misfortunes perfectly like a Christian.

AS GOOD AS WHEAT.

Buffalo Express.

"I see," remarked the wide-awake farmer, "that wheat has gone up to seventy cents in Chicago, and there's a report that it will keep goin' till it gets to one dollar. Now, I'd like to contract to sell you my crop for seventy cents. Seventy cents will do me. I'd rather have a sure thing while it's goin' than to take my chances on doin' better by waitin'."

"But," replied the commission merchant, "I can't agree to contract for your wheat at seventy cents."

"Why not? It's goin' up to a dollar an' you'll make thirty cents a bushel. Ain't that enough?"

"Oh, yes; but you see that seventy cents is only a speculative price. It ain't what they pay for real wheat."

"Don't pay that for real wheat? What in thunder do they pay for, then?"

"Why, for options."

"Well, what the blazes are options?"

"Why, they're promises to get wheat and sell it for such and such a price."

"Well, then, they got to get the wheat, ain't they?"

"No; they sell the promises again, according as the market rises or falls."

"An' don't they buy an' sell any real wheat at all?"

"Not much."

"Just buy an' sell wind at seventy cents a bushel?"

"That's about it."

"Thunder an' Mars, wish I'd known that last fall. I wouldn't a-sowed any wheat. I'd tied my grain bags to the back o' my fannin mill an' kept the boy turnin' it all winter, till I'd filled all the bags I could get hold of. But it ain't too late yet. By gosh, if it's wind they want 'stead of wheat, I can supply the market for the hull country right off my farm!"

First citizen (in the near future)—"Who is that they're goin' to string up?" Second citizen—"That's the man that stole Tornado Pete's bicycle."

"War," said the lecturing philanthropist, "is a horrible evil. The warrior is a survival of barbarism—What's that! A drum! Soldiers coming!! Open the window. I want to see them."—Boston Transcript.
